NOTES

THE LAW REVIEW

Entering its twenty-first year of publication, the Iowa Law Review takes a place among those law reviews of the country which follow the Harvard system of complete student editorial responsibility. Election to the Review comes as an honor bestowed for demonstrated legal scholarship and affords unsurpassed opportunity for intensive training in original legal research and thought. The adoption in its entirety of the policy of student editing makes available this opportunity in fullest measure, while by the same token insuring the publication of a Review of maximum service to the profession.
