Owing to delay in receiving the article from our contributor, the publication of this number of the Bulletin has been unavoidably delayed. The next number will be published in March, at the regular time.

LAW STUDENT ASSOCIATION.—The Iowa Law School Students Association was organized during the college year last past. This body is made up of all the students in the Law College and has as its general object the furtherance of student-interests and promotion of better acquaintance. By subscriptions from its members and an appropriation from the Board of Education, the Association is fitting up a student's club room for the men of the college. The room is on the lower floor of the law building and conveniently adjoins the locker room. When the furnishing is completed the room will be a most pleasant place to spend a leisure or a study hour.

The Association has also been active in promoting a better acquaintance of the students among each other, and between student body and faculty. To this end an informal "mixer" was held during the past term, and another is to be held in the near future. It is also planned to hold similar informal gatherings of the separate classes in the new room from time to time.

MEETING OF LAW ALUMNI.—The third annual Law Alumni dinner was held in the library of the Law Building on Friday, November twelfth, 1915, as a part of the University Homecoming, about
