IOWA LAW BULLETIN

NOTES

THE COLLEGE OF LAW

Several changes in the law faculty became effective at the opening of the college year. Wayne G. Cook of the Davenport bar succeeds Professor Frank H. Randall who resigned to enter practice in Iowa City. Mr. Cook graduated from the College of Law in 1913, Order of the Coif, and has been engaged in the practice of the law since that time. He will give the courses in pleading and practice, to which he will devote his entire time after the opening of the second semester. During the first semester Mr. Cook will devote only part time to his law teaching, giving the courses in Trial Practice and in Brief Making. The course in Code Pleading is being given temporarily by Sam H. Erwin of the Davenport bar and the course in Bankruptcy by Charles F. Luberger of the Cedar Rapids bar. Mr. Erwin graduated from the College of Liberal Arts in 1911 and from the College of Law in 1913, Order of the Coif, and Mr. Luberger from Dartmouth in 1907 and from the College of Law in 1910. Mr. Luberger was United States referee in bankruptcy at Cedar Rapids for three years. Odis K. Patton has been elected associate professor of law. Mr. Patton graduated from the College of Liberal Arts in 1912, received his M.A. degree in 1913, Ph.D. in 1916, and LL.B. from the College of Law in 1917. In June 1923, Harvard conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Law (S.J.D.). During the present year he is on leave of absence with the Iowa Code Commission and will assume his teaching duties in the fall of 1924. During the present year his courses will again be given by Pro-
